FOREWORD

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, and imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love our fellow-men, we engrave on those tablets something that will brighten to all eternity.

DEDICATION

We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, have met many impressive people in our twelve years of attending Elizabeth High School. One of these people was Mrs. Agnes Edlin who will always have a special place in our hearts. We dedicate this annual to her memory because of her willingness to help, patience, understanding, contribution to our library, and most of all because she cared.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of nineteen hundred and sixty-five we entered high school as frightened children, led by Pam Klopf as class president, Our class advisor, Mr. Thomas, amused us with his jokes such as the "sum of the two squaws is equal to the squaw of the hippopotomous." And he reprimanded us often, Mrs. Coral Pease assisted him very ably. The Coat and Hat check was instituted by our freshman class.

The following September we returned as sophomores. Cindy Parrott was our class President and we were advised by Mr. Carroll and Mr. Bernard. It was a typically uneventful sophomore year.

As Juniors we intensified our money making projects for the famed Senior Trip. The year was filled with things such as magazines sales, car washed, bake sales, and candy sales to mention a few. We sponsored the "Snowflake" successfully and our Junior play "Nowhere Fast" directed by Peder Q. Halverson, was also very successful. Organization wasn't our strong point, however, with the help of Mr. Kuhl we had an extremely beautiful prom--A SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY--indeed.

Our Senior year proved to be the most eventful and fun. Our super-cool advisor was Carl F. Schwerdtfeger--and our fearless leader was Colleen Lee. The year's activities began in the summer with a number of attempted work days. Through out the year we struggled to make money. Despite our difficulty, we learned much and had a great time. Highlights of the year were the County government elections, play practice, the play; "The Imaginary Invalid", the prom; "Camelot", the scholarship awarded our school, the senior's singing at graduation; "The Impossible Dream", and the trip to Washington D.C. We left high school, still a little bit frightened, but no longer children, and hopefully responsible citizens to the challenge presented us.

EPILOGUE

Pleasure is a shadow, wealth is vanity, and power a pageant; but knowledge is ecstatic in enjoyment, perennial in fame, unlimited in space, and infinite in duration. It fears no danger, spares no expense, looks in the volcano, dives into the ocean, perforates the earth, wings its flight into the skies, explores sea and land, contemplates the distant, examines the minute, comprehends the great, ascends to the sublime--no place too remote for its grasp, no height too exalted for its reach.

De Witt Clinton

No man is an island, entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main; if a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friends or of thine own were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind; And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

Devotions XVII

John Donne (1573-1631)
